

APPENDIX C- 4. Consent to Photograph

CONSENT TO VIDEOTAPE , PHOTOGRAPHY AND AUDIOTAPE

I, _____,

Hereby authorize the Prevention and Preservation - Digital Stories and Diabetes Prevention Project in partnership with VIU, VICCIFN, the CDA and VIHA, to take videotape, audio tape or photo images of _____ (self, son, daughter, etc.).

Print name of participant

To be used for digital story creation, recording of the events, promotions of the project and website blogs etc.

It is understood that I may request the opportunity to view the videotape or photographs, and that I have the right to request that the images be destroyed.

Please check if you are okay with your story being:

- Shared
- Stored on YouTube site *
- Shared and uploaded to Digital Harvest Facebook page *
- Stored on VICCIFN's website **
- Used to promote Traditional Food issues by the organizers

* Please note that posting stories on YouTube and Facebook exposes participants to a certain amount of risk, as stories can be freely shared, stories are open for all to see, in perpetuity. Also, these sites store information on US-based servers, making content subject to US laws. Posting your information to a social media site means that you give up control of the information. You will not be able to remove or delete it from the site and its future use is beyond your control. Risks will be discussed in the workshops and minimized as efforts will be made to ensure no sensitive, personal information is presented in stories that are posted to these sites. All participants will be given the opportunity to review and approve stories before they are posted. The ability to comment on YouTube videos will also be removed to mitigate the possibility of unwanted commentary. The advantage of YouTube and Facebook is that it increases the accessibility of the stories, increasing their audience and potential impact

 Information and stories stored and on VICCIFN's website will remain in full control of VICCIFN and can be taken down at any time if requested.
